The Cotswold Collection.

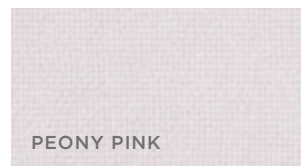

A refined collection of woven table linens, inspired by the quiet beauty of the English countryside. Natural tones and a softly textured finish create a lasting sense of occasion, bringing warmth and understated sophistication to every setting.

Crafted from responsible fibres, the Cotswold Collection balances considered design with a relaxed, effortless drape, adding an understated sense of luxury to both formal and casual settings.

Four considered shades, each designed to sit effortlessly within a wide range of settings and palettes.

A pristine, luminous white that provides a softly textured weave brings depth while maintaining crisp, fresh sophistication, the ideal backdrop for any table setting.

A soft, romantic shade inspired by garden blooms at their peak, this gentle pink introduces warmth and quiet character, creating a delicate yet grounded setting.

A muted, chalky off-white that is subtle and understated, this tone reflects weathered limestone and sun-softened surfaces. A calm, balanced shade with enduring appeal.

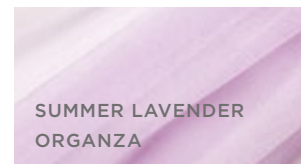

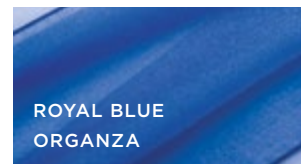

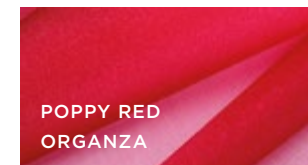

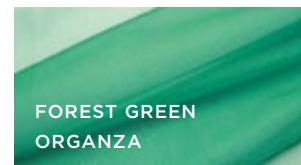

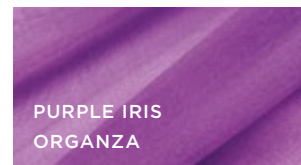

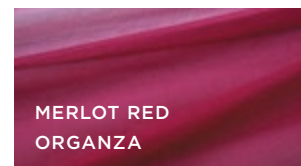

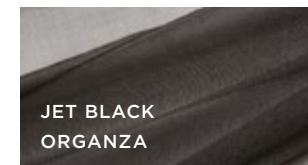

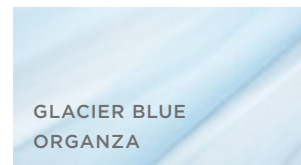

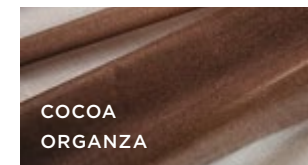

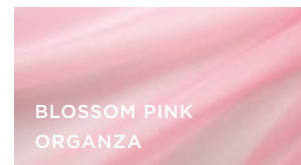

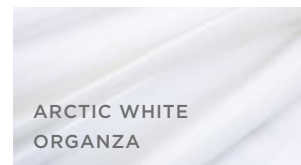

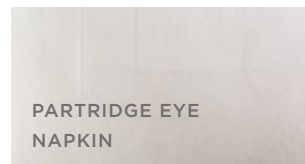

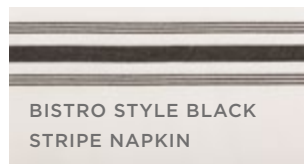

A warm, natural neutral shade drawn from sunlit fields and aged stone, this hue brings depth and earthiness, offering a relaxed yet considered presence.

Unique Napkins & Organzas.

There is no need to settle for buying cheap, disposable alternatives when you can have a delicate organza or a distinctive napkin to hire at a fraction of the cost.

Our teams are able to tailor an event selection to meet a partner's vision within most budgets, and relish the challenge to do so.

We offer napkins in every colour of our collection as well as a selection of specialist vintage, retro or contemporary designs.
